It offers original insights into: globalisation and its associated governance challenges; the changing forms of multilateral cooperation and the role of transnational networks; the impact of new global powers and the corollary multipolar order; the lessons born from comparative regionalism and interregional partnerships; as well as the distinctive instruments the EU mobilises in its foreign policies and external relations.

EU and China to deepen global strategic partnership ...

Today, the focus is very much on the sharing of knowledge, know how and experience between equal partners. Trade and business continue to be at the core of EU China relations but the relationship is expanding. "I am more convinced than ever that, in the era of globalisation and of interdependence, multilateralism must be at the heart of what we do.
