Encounters at the Heart of the World

Encounters at the Heart of the World: A History of the Mandan People is a Pulitzer Prize winning non fiction history book about the Mandan people, a Native American tribe in North Dakota. It was written by historian Elizabeth A. Fenn and published in 2014 by Farrar, Straus and Giroux.

Encounters at the Heart of the World: Mandan Survivance ...

But the significance of the title—Encounters at the Heart of the World—goes beyond Mandan self understanding and geography. Fenn documents the ways in which the Mandan People and their homelands were at the confluence of global events. The colonizers' search for the Northwest Passage to India, the international trade in furs, the competition between France and Britain—and later, the U.S.—for control of the continent: the Mandan were at a crossroads of these world changing processes.
