Fire from Heaven (Alexander the Great, #1) by Mary Renault

Since Fire from Heaven is the first volume of Mary Renault's trilogy about the life of Alexander the Great, it's not very surprising that this book is about Alexander's childhood and youth. Like I said, I found it a very compelling read, but not so much because of the plot, but because I didn't wan This is my second copy of this book.

Fire from Heaven

Fire from Heaven is a 1969 historical novel by Mary Renault about the childhood and youth of Alexander the Great. It reportedly was a major inspiration for the Oliver Stone film Alexander . The book was nominated for the “ Lost Man Booker Prize ” of 1970, "a contest delayed by 40 years because a reshuffling of the fledgeling competition's rules", [1] but lost out to Troubles by J. G. Farrell .
