Sword (1370 1430) Royal Armouries collections

Among other examples of this blade type illustrated by Oakeshott is Royal Armouries IX.2794 (excavated in London and not inscribed). Although a manuscript note (in Guy Wilson's hand?) in the Typed Inventory entry for this sword records that there is a full translation of the inscription in the inv. file, a manuscript note adds that this translation has been lost, but that it is first recorded ...
